Plus additional benefits generally include bonuses, company cars, personal laptops and cell phones. Sound good? It is! Claims Adjusters are in demand because they're vital to every insurance case.

Think of it this way...insurance policies are purchased by both individuals and businesses, and every insurance company depends on their Claims Adjusters to process claims, protect the insured and safeguard the insurance company's bottom line. Claims Adjusters are responsible for communicating with everyone involved - insurance companies, attorneys, doctors and hospital personnel, state and federal government agencies and, most of all, the claimant.

The adjuster is the customer's lifeline during a traumatic time. The customer relies on the fact that their adjuster has all the skills and knowledge to resolve their claim fairly. Think of the satisfaction you'll feel when you authorize payment and hand your customer their settlement check!

And because of the important role they play, as Claims Adjusters gain experience, they become more valuable to their employers and receive promotions - and salary increases - very quickly.

Compare these advantages with any other profession you can train for in such a short time...

This truly is a great opportunity. What other career can you start with as little as four months of training? What other career offers you the dream of earning over $79,000 a year as your skills and experience increase?
